FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kick-off NFL Super Bowl LVII with UCLA Dashew Center, ASUCLA Student Union at livestream watch party

The first 250 attendees to the Super Bowl LVII Watch Party will receive giveaways, free food and other prizes throughout the football livestream.

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 10, 2023 – Join the Dashew Center for International Students and Scholars and the ASUCLA Student Union, a division of Associated Students UCLA, for the Super Bowl Watch Party on Feb. 12. Livestreaming the battle between the Philadelphia Eagles and the Kansas City Chiefs for the Vince Lombardi Trophy, the watch party will kick off at 3 p.m. in Ackerman Grand Ballroom.

The watch party is sponsored by Wescom Credit Union and the first 250 attendees on Super Bowl Sunday will receive giveaways of a UCLA Dashew Center reusable water bottle or tote bag. All members of the UCLA community are invited to attend. International students and scholars are encouraged to join their friends and family in the football game festivities.

“We’re looking forward to sharing this distinctly American pastime with members of our UCLA community, particularly our international students and scholars,” said Jenna Bustamante, UCLA Dashew Center programs supervisor. “We hope folks are excited for some great food selections from ASUCLA Catering, along with tons of giveaways, and of course, the energy of watching the big game together!”

Football fans can look forward to free game-day food like hamburger sliders and sandwiches, beverages, and dessert from an ice cream cart. Further prizes will also be given away throughout the game ranging from gift cards to UCLA swag donated by ASUCLA and an exclusive Wescom Credit Union giveaway of a signed football by UCLA Football Head Coach Chip Kelly.

Those interested in a game of their own during the watch party can also partake in giant Jenga, cornhole and ping pong provided by the ASUCLA Student Union.

To RSVP for the Super Bowl Watch Party, visit the UCLA Dashew Center for International Students and Scholars website here.
